

Junior Poultry & Rabbit Department

1. Exhibitors must be in uniform.
2. Use a separate entry form for each department (i.e.: Poultry and Rabbit entries would go on separate entry forms).
3. Please fill out all entry forms completely, including breed, variety, sex, color and identification number.
4. Entry fees are $1.00 per entry, except as stated elsewhere.
5. All exhibitors will be responsible for one 3-hour shift one day to help care for animals. Sign-up for shifts at time of check-in.
6. Show management reserves the right to place more than one female of the same variety belonging to the same exhibitor in one coop.
7. No identification cards, pedigrees or advertising will be allowed on or near the cages until after the completion of judging.
8. Birds or animals showing evidence of diseases or external parasites will not be cooped in or will be removed by the show manager and placed in an isolated area until they may be removed by their owner. Birds or animals showing evidence of disease or external parasites will not be judged.
9. The show manager and the Napa Valley Exposition take every precaution to care for and secure all entries but accept no responsibility for loss of entries due to illness or theft.
10. Exhibitors are responsible to handle their animals for judging or to have another exhibitor who is designated to handle the animals for judging. Animals will not be moved by building personnel.

SALE OF ANIMALS:

1. All sales of small livestock must go through the show manager.
2. A 10% fee will be assessed on all sales.
3. No animal will be released from the area without a release slip issued and cleared through the show manager.
4. If an exhibitor is planning to sell one or more pedigreed rabbits (including meat pens that may be sold through the Junior Livestock Auction), a copy of the pedigree of these rabbits must be turned in at check-in.
